Pope's Missionary Intentions for July

That priests, who experience fatigue and loneliness in their pastoral work, may find help and comfort in their intimacy with the Lord and in their friendship with their brother priests.

SCHOOL LEAVERS

This Sunday we celebrate the end-of-year leavers Mass in the church at 9.15 am. For our children in year 6 this will mark the all-important last days at St. Joseph's Primary school and then the major change of starting at the senior school in September. This is a time of thanksgiving for so much achieved by our children and especially by our wonderful staff at St. Joseph's over the past five or six years. For so much we shall give thanks but also commit ourselves (children and their families) to continue the daily living of the Catholic life and Faith to which we are committed at the moment of our Baptism and which we have tried to live ever since. Please remember them all in your prayers.

Our Parishioner Fr David Prichard will celebrate Mass for the first time here at St Joseph's next Saturday at 6 pm.

Fr David was ordained to the sacred priesthood at the Birmingham Oratory at 12:30 pm on Saturday 30th June by Archbishop Bernard Longley. He was one of the eight candidates, all from the Personal Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham.

He was a former Anglican Priest before being received into full communion with the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil in 2013 here at St Joseph's. He is attached to the Ordinariate mission in South Wales based at Newport. Many parishioners will remember David who faithfully served here as thurifer at the Sunday 11 am Mass.

Red Mission Boxes

There are several boxes ready for collection from the back of Church.

Parish Diary 2019

These are now available from the back of Church
Price 50 pence each.

GOING INTO HOSPITAL?

Waiting to go into hospital? Do please let your parish priest know in plenty of time. He will be pleased to celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick with you or provide any pastoral support you need. The small team of parish priests who, with Fr David Prichard and Fr Peter Davies, currently provide 24/7 emergency cover in the Cardiff hospitals are under a great deal of pressure, so unfortunately there is no guarantee that one will always be available at any particular time. On the same theme, if you know of any Catholic already in hospital who needs or might like a visit or sacramental support, please continue to leave details with the Cardiff & Vale Hospital Chaplaincy on 029 2074 3230 or 029 2074 5424.

Parish Rosary Prayer Group

We meet the last Thursday of each month at 2 pm in Ty Mair, 19 Heol y Waun CF14 1LB (junction of Heol Gabriel/College Road) to pray/discuss the Rosary and have a cuppa ! This month we shall meet on July 26th. Prayer intentions welcome. All welcome.

For further details contact Christine Searle 07771161259.

CAFOD SCHOOL VOLUNTEERS NEEDED.

Could you spare some time to volunteer with CAFOD? CAFOD in South Wales is looking for volunteers to work with children and young people in Catholic schools to help them learn about global poverty and inspire them to take action. Full training and resources provided. To find out more please contact Therese Warwick on 029 20344882 or email southwales@cafod.org.uk

Eisteddfod Genedlaethol Caerdydd 2018 / National Eisteddfod of Wales Cardiff 2018

During the week of the National Eisteddfod of Wales at Cardiff, Mass will be celebrated in Welsh in the presence of Archbishop George Stack at the Cathedral Church of St David, Cardiff. Y Cylch Catholig, together with the Dean, Rev Canon Peter Collins, invites you to be a part of this significant event. Eisteddfod-goers from all parts of Wales and beyond will join with parishioners and ecumenical and civic guests for the celebration. Bilingual booklets will be provided.

You are warmly invited to attend the Mass at 6pm on Thursday August 9th, and to join us for refreshments at The Cornerstone afterwards.

LUNCHEON CLUB at St Peter's Community Hall

Luncheon club has started running - a two course meal costing £5 from 12 to 2 pm every Thursday. All are welcome.

World Meeting of Families 2018

Dublin, Ireland, has been chosen by Pope Francis to host the next World Meeting of Families from 21-26 August 2018, guided by the theme "The Gospel of the Family: Joy for the World".

World Meeting of Families 2018 will be a joyful and enriching occasion for adults, young people and children. During these five days, there will be time to meet and share, pray and reflect, grow in faith and love, celebrate, as well as gather strength to continue the journey of life.

Held every three years, this major international event brings together families from across the world to celebrate, pray and reflect upon the central importance of marriage and the family as the cornerstone of our lives, of society and of the Church.

Are you going?

Would you like to make contact with others from the archdiocese who are going? Perhaps you'd be willing to feedback on your plans, experiences and lasting memories...

The Archdiocesan Marriage & Family Life team would like you to contact them and potentially arrange to meet up with them whilst you are in Dublin this August; please contact Joanne White by email parenting@rcadc.org

Our Lady of Mount Carmel

The Story of Our Lady of Mount Carmel
Hermits lived on Mount Carmel near the Fountain of Elijah in northern Israel in the 12th century. They had a chapel dedicated to Our Lady. By the 13th century they became known as "Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel." They soon celebrated a special Mass and Office in honor of Mary. In 1726, it became a celebration of the universal Church under the title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. For centuries the Carmelites have seen themselves as specially related to Mary. Their great saints and theologians have promoted devotion to her and often championed the mystery of her Immaculate Conception.

Saint Teresa of Avila called Carmel "the Order of the Virgin." Saint John of the Cross credited Mary with saving him from drowning as a child, leading him to Carmel, and helping him escape from prison. Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus believed that Mary cured her from illness. On her First Communion day, Thérèse dedicated her life to Mary. During the last days of her life she frequently spoke of Mary.

There is a tradition—which may not be historical—that Mary appeared to Saint Simon Stock, a leader of the Carmelites, and gave him a scapular, telling him to promote devotion to it. The scapular is a modified version of Mary's own garment. It symbolizes her special protection and calls the wearers to consecrate themselves to her in a special way. The scapular reminds us of the gospel call to prayer and penance—a call that Mary models in a splendid way.

The Carmelites were known from early on as "Brothers of Our Lady of Mount Carmel." The title suggests that they saw Mary not only as "mother," but also as "sister." The word sister is a reminder that Mary is very close to us. She is the daughter of God and therefore can help us be authentic daughters and sons of God. She also can help us grow in appreciation of being sisters and brothers to one another. She leads us to a new realization that all human beings belong to the family of God. When such a conviction grows, there is hope that the human race can find its way to peace.

Mary, under the Title of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, is the Patron Saint of: Chile
